Dear Friends,

The 19th annual Latino Behavioral Health Institute (LBHI) conference themed "Advancing Latino Behavioral Health: From Margin to Mainstream" addresses behavioral health issues of the moment. The 44 workshops and four plenary sessions focus on health and behavioral health of the entire Latino life span. Critical national issues are integration of health, behavioral health, and related disorders. The 19th annual conference features experts in each of these topics. Your attendance at the conference will help you develop strategies for increasing quality services to the Latinos in your community.

The 19th annual LBHI conference is one of the premier events offering ideas and strategies for reaching Latino/a communities. Additionally, the conference offers tremendous networking opportunities. You can take advantage of this event to develop working relationships with colleagues experienced in providing services to our community.

LBHI is hopeful you are able to attend this most important event. Please pass this information on to your colleagues. – Mil Gracias!!

Sinceramente,
Ambrose Rodriguez,
Director and Founder

Conference Goals

1. Disseminate cultural competence information on Latino behavioral health. This information is based in practice and science.
2. Promote the dialogue between consumers, family members and providers of service and researchers in Latino behavioral health.
